Cancellation Policy

A person or team is considered "registered" for an event when they have entered either on the website (events/bonspiels), in person at the club, or by forwarding an entry and have paid the requested fee. Should a person or team wish to withdraw from the event prior to the cut off date listed on the event poster, a full refund will be provided. Should a person or team wish to withdraw from the event after the cut off date a full refund will be provided if a replacement person or team can fill their spot. If no person or team can fill the spot the convenor is not obligated to provide a refund. Should a person or team need to withdraw due to extraordinary circumstances a partial or full refund can be authorized by the convenor at their discretion. Should the club cancel an event for any reason a full refund will be provided to all registered people or teams.

RKCC event refund policy is available at Royal Kingston Curling Club-Club Policies.
